

Commissioner Mark Sharpe

Mark Sharpe is a Tampa native who was elected to the County Commission in 2004. Mr. Sharpe served eight years as an active-duty officer in the U.S. Navy, 12 years in the U.S. Naval Reserves before retiring after two decades of service. Sharpe also worked as a development officer for a private school, as a government relations consultant and served on the County's Citizens Advisory Committee. After receiving a bachelor's degree in multinational business from Florida State University, he pursued a master's degree in strategic studies from the University of South Florida. He is married to Stephanie and they have three children.

Mr. Sharpe currently serves on the following boards and committees: The Children's Board of Hillsborough County, Hillsborough Area Regional Transit Authority (HART), Metropolitan Planning Organization and Tampa Bay Water.

Children's Board
HILLSBOROUGH COUNTY

Dreams Worth Growing